

I am 100% OPPOSED to easing restrictions upon ownership of local broadcast companies. This opens the door to further consolidation within the television industry, such as that which has homogenized commercial radio, robbing it of all diversity.

The only potential beneficiaries of eased restrictions will be large media companies. The clear losers are the American people: loss of local accountability for broadcasters; loss of smaller, independent broadcasters; and loss of control of OUR OWN airwaves.